Use the following expression to answer the questions below.

11.89 – 5.817 + 8.31

1. Represent the expression on a number line.

2. Evaluate the expression. Show all of your work, and explain in words why you took each step.

3. Develop a word problem that represents this expression.

_____

_____

_____

_____

4. Can you change the order of the numbers in the expression above and still get the same solution? Why or why not?

_____

_____

_____

_____

Use the following expression to answer to answer the questions below.

$$-3\frac{5}{6} + 4\frac{1}{3} - \left(\frac{1}{3}\right)$$

5. Represent the expression on a number line.

6. Evaluate the expression. Show all of your work, and explain in words why you took each step.

7. Develop a word problem that represents this expression.

_____

_____

_____

_____

8. Can you change the order of the numbers in the expression above and still get the same solution? Why or why not?

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____