Educational and Career Development Resources

Open Educational Resources (OER) found in IOER:

- Span all grade levels from Kindergarten through life-long learning.
- Cover a broad variety of subjects for educational and career development purposes.
- Include options for alignment to Illinois K-12 learning standards, Illinois Adult Education learning standards, and national learning standards.
- Are available to be used by instructors, learners, parents, workforce professionals, life-long learners, and anyone interested in open educational and career development resources.
- Are curated, created, and shared by individual IOER users or by organizations, come from many websites, and can come from the national Learning Registry.
