Options for Sharing

IOER offers options to share career and educational resources. Resource formats include:

- Existing online resources.
- Digital files that get uploaded to IOER.
- Sets of files and/or web pages that need to be kept together such as a lesson or a complete curriculum.

Login to begin using any of the IOER options for contributing resources.

Options for Sharing

Contribute Open Education Resources!

There are a few ways to add your Resources to the IOER Repository. Take a look:

Tag a Resource

Resources are the bread and butter of IOER. A resource is a webpage from the Internet or a file from your computer (or your Google Drive!) with a complete set of information (the "tags") to describe it so others can find and make use of it.

Go to Tagging Tool →

Create a Learning Set

A learning set is an ordered sequence of resources bound together by a common purpose. It is suitable for lessons or activities that need multiple supporting resources.

Go to Learning Set Builder →

Create a Learning List

A learning list is a structured hierarchy of learning sets. It is suitable for a larger series of lessons, a curriculum, or anything in between. If you have need to express both sequence and scope, a learning list is the way to go.

About Tagging

Tagging is way to give resources labels, keywords, and descriptions. IOER uses the tags to create metadata. Metadata helps describe each resource and allows it to be found again by browsing or searching.

IOER follows standards for tagging that make resources and aligned standards highly searchable. These are the standards Google and other major search engines use specific to educational resources.

Educational resources can be difficult to find via search engines, they get buried with myriad other types of resources. Tagging educational resources, even existing web pages, with IOER will make it easy to find.

Options for Sharing
